Scope

This report is part of a series of 5 highly-visual reports covering the 40 markets surveyed in the annual Voice of the Consumer: Lifestyles survey.

Draws together insights from across the Lifestyles survey and provides takeaways on key trends.

Reviews shifting consumer traits and values that influence purchasing and consumption behaviours. (Visual only report)

Explores consumers beyond their demographic profile and provides a different perspective on shopping habits and path to purchase.

Consumer Profiles - offer a concise and clear overview of the consumer landscape, encompassing all aspects of population, households, income and expenditure, and lifestyles

Connects survey insights with Euromonitor's megatrends, including case studies highlighting how companies are responding to changing attitudes and expectations.

Note: In the Lifestyles survey, respondents provide their age within 5-year increments (15-19, 20-24, 25-29, etc). Given these parameters, generations cited in this report series are defined as follows: Generation Z: aged 15 to 29; Millennials: aged 30 to 44; Generation X: aged 45 to 59; Baby Boomers: aged 60+

This report visually explores everyday habits and behaviours which reflect consumers' beliefs and values, linking behavioural trends with purchase and consumption habits.
